FoodServiceEurope and EFFAT, EU social partners for the contract catering sector, are happy to invite you to the launch of our updated Best Value Guide. Resulting from an EU-funded project, this Guide aims to support both private and public organisations in the procurement of food services based on quality as much as price. As such, it promotes the values enshrined in the EU public procurement strategy of ensuring quality services that fully respect workers' rights among other quality considerations.

Anna Lupi, European Commission Public Procurement Strategy, DG GROW
